DEEDS GIVEN TO CITY FOR PROPOSED NEW QUARRY ROAD

Abandonment proceedings will be started by the city council immediately on Road No. 27 which leads to Winehaven for the proposed change in grade near the San Pablo Quarries company.

A deed to the property over which the new road will pass was presented to the city council last night by Anson S. Blake, head of the quarry company.

According to plans on file in the city engineer's office, the new road will be cut into the hills above the quarry and will be so constructed that the grade will be lessened from that of twenty per cent at the present time to seven and one-half per cent.

The new road will be constructed jointly by the city and the Standard Oil company.

LOCAL ATTORNEY IS IN EXCITING CHASE IN S. F. YESTERDAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 19.—A well-driller, an attorney, an auto mechanic and three deputies from the sheriff's office furnished the cast of characters for an exciting chase through the business district of this city yesterday as the result of complications in the purchase of an auto.

The well-driller was J. E. Brietwiser of Alameda; the attorney was Alvin Gerlack of Richmond, counsel for Brietwiser; the mechanic, who is said to hold a lien against the machine, was E. Dobbins of the Recreation garage.

It's a long story, but in brief form it amounts to this: Brietwiser bought a six-cylinder, seven-passenger auto for $244. Like all second-hand cars it ran just outside the garage and stopped.

Brietwiser had it towed backed again, gave instructions to fix it and then received the bill. The bill was itemized and totaled $362. It was too much, thought Brietwiser, so he secured the services of Attorney Gerlack.

Then the attorney and his client took the car. After them came Dobbins, the mechanic, and after Dobbins came the posse of deputy sheriffs wih an attachment which Dobbins had secured against the car earlier in the day.

According to Attorney Gerlack, the auto is a pile of junk and makes more racket than a dozen threashing machines. Not so with Dobbins, who says the car is in first-class condition and was sold at a bargain. Anyway, the whole affair will be threshed out in court Friday.

STATE HIGHWAY IS READY TO BE USED

A two-mile stretch of the state highway extending from the Alameda county line to the intersection of Macdonald and San Pablo avenues will be thrown open to traffic tomorrow, according to C. H. Clark, a representative of the commission in charge of the work.

Surface coatings were put on the last one hundred feet of the highway today.

But for a few breaks along the completed stretch of roadway where culverts have been laid the road is one of the finest about the bay district.

POWER COMPANY GIVES CITY PER CENT

Richmond's city treasury was enriched $729.28 last night by the Great Western Power company, who informed the city council hat the above amount was two per cent of its gross revenues for the past year.

Melons

Are you getting your share of the melons that are being cut? A number of our large corporations are announcing five and ten per cent advances in salaries along with shorter and more agreeable working hours. We trust that you are all affected by this progress and we are more firmly convinced than ever that now is the time to begin a system of setting aside a certain percentage of each pay check for the creation of a fund to meet emergencies.

Our Saving department is organized for that purpose and we know of no better plan than the opening of accounts therein and allowing your surplus to take advantage of our compound interest.

CITY FIREMAN IS BECOMING A SEWING EXPERT

The day of the Herculean fireman has past.

No longer does he spend his leisure hours punching a bag, twirling Indian clubs or hoisting dumbells. He has chosen a new vocation—one which requires brains instead of brawn.

He has thrown aside the heavy forms of recreation and taken to embroidery.

Such is he change, at any rate, which Hoseman Vernon Andrews of truck No. 2 has made, and from the delicate bits of work he is completing has shown himself equal, if not superior, to many Richmond women. In fact so expert has Andrews become with the needle and thread that he is making much of his work into Christmas presents for his friends.

6 DAYS Until Christmas

"Shop early" is the slogan of the merchants and it should be the slogan of the buyers, for the early shoppers are the ones who get the best bargains and the best selection of goods.

In the latter days of the Christmas rush sales people become worn out and as they are human it is but natural they should be not so obliging and courteous as they were when they were pursuing an even routine day by day. Therefore do your holiday buying at once and don't put it off until the last minute.

If you are going to make your friends a present of your photo, call at the studio at once for your sitting. It may be you will be compelled to make a second call, and if so, then your work will be delayed until after the holidays. It is always safe to shop early.

LITTLE DRESS CAUGHT AFIRE FROM STOVE

Childish curiosity on the part of little two-year-old Earl Renwick, son of Charles Renwick, owner of the Pioneer Electric company, 318 Macdonald avenue, in standing too close to an open grate in the Renwick home, 416 Virginia street, last evening, caused his death and cloaked the home in sorrow, where but a few hours before unbounded joy had reigned.

HAPPENED QUICKLY.

Mrs. Renwick, who was in her backyard taking down some clothes which had been hung out to dry, happened to glance toward her sitting room window. Almost as she did, she saw a sheet of flames race up the window curtains. At the same instant she saw the face of her little son pressed against the window pane and covered from head to foot in fire.

Rushing into the house she beat out the blazing curtains with her hands. Hurrying into the street she called for help. Mrs. Fitzgerald, a next door neighbor, hearing the shouts and seeing the smoke issuing from the window called out the fire department.

Fire Chief Roy Lemoine arrived at the scene in a few minutes' time and taking the situation in at a glance hurried to the Abbott emergency hospital for a doctor. Both Drs. U. S. Abbott and C. L. Abbott being away at the time, Lemoine rushed into the dental office of Dr. H. W. O'Brien, where Dr. H. L. Belgium was having some dental work done.

Together with Miss Louise Esola, nurse at the hospital, the doctor was rushed to the Renwick home. Meanwhile neighbors had applied first aid treatments to the little fellow's burns. Following the arrival of Dr. Belgium, Drs. H. L. Carpenter, Hall Vestal, U. S. Abbott and C. L. Abbott came.

Swathed in cotton and the burned spots soothed with oil the little boy showed signs of recovering.

Just a little more than an hour following the accident the boy succumbed, his death supposedly resulting from the shock more than from the burns.

It is supposed that during the absence of his mother the little boy walked too close to the open grate of the stove and while watching the dancing flames did not notice the fire which had caught on his little skirts.

Finding himself ablaze he rushed to the window to attract the attention of his mother. From his blazing skirts the first caught on the curtains, burning parts of which fell upon his curly head.

Both father and mother are grief stricken at the loss of their son. Just a little more than a year ago a daughter in the family died.

Funeral services will be conducted at the family home at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon by Rev. H. K. Sanborne, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. Interment will be made in Sunset View cemetery. The funeral arrangements are in charge of Undertaker Bert Curry.

As a star away from any program and shining all alone, Mary Pickford is to be seen at the Richmond theater for the last time today in the new picture "Less Than the Dust," which will be viewed with additional interest because of the fact that it is the first production made by the famous and loved "Our Mary" since she took the head of her own company, the Mary Pickford Film corporation. Written by Hector Turnbull and with the fine direction of John Emerson there has been provided for Mary Pickford in this new picture a production that is the real attainment of the best work and art of the best brains in this wonderful art industry.

It is by far the largest production in which Miss Pickford has ever appeared and it has been made under her guidance and ever present influence in the perfection of every detail. The prices for today are 10 and 15 cents.

Seasue Hayakawa comes to the Richmond theater tomorrow in "The Soul of Kura San."

FELL FROM LOFT; HURT; THEN WELL

How a Man Who Landed On Wood Pile And Was Sore From Head to Foot Found Quick Relief.

Once upon a time Edwin Putnam, who lives in the quiet, pretty hamlet of Wendel Depot, Mass., climbed up into a loft to get some building material, just as many another man living in the country must often do. Suddenly he slipped and fell. Ten feet below was a pile of wood, knotted and gnarled. It was a nasty tumble, and Mr. Putnam was injured painfully in the back, he was covered with bruises, and was sore from head to foot.

The next day he bought a bottle of Sloan's Liniment which had been recommended to him. Within a very few hours the soreness had vanished and the lameness had disappeared. He was an active man once more.

Sloan's Liniment can be obtained at all drug stores, 25c, 50c and $1.

A TRIP TO CHERRY'S SHOP FOR HIM—THEN A REAL CHRISTMAS!

He's going to a big "family party" on Xmas day—glorious dinner and all that, and a theater party of the crowd in the evening. Wear his old serge suit, the one he wore LAST Xmas? "Not much!" he said. And he's wise.

He's going to buy some clothes he can be proud of. He's going to CHERRY'S CREDIT SHOP today. He'll fit himself out in a distinctive, correctly cut Suits and a smartly patterned new Overcoat.

He will pay for both ON WEEKLY INSTALLMENTS—a few dollars today and a few each week till the whole price is paid. It's a perfect-working plan, as its extreme popularity proves.

If YOUR Suit or Overcoat isn't quite up to the mark, doubtless you, too, will wish to visit CHERRY'S store at 528 Thirteenth street, Oakland, handling exclusively men's clothing; across the street at 516 is the ladies' store. In San Francisco CHERRY'S are at 1009 Market street and 2400 Mission. Also Tacoma, Portland, Los Angeles and Sacramento.—Advt.
